Class Song

"I Will Remember You"

By: Sarah McLaughlin

I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
Remember the times that we had
We let them slip away from us
when things got bad
Clearly I first saw you smiling in the sun
I could feel your warmth upon me
I want to be the one
I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
I'm so tired, but I can't sleep
Standing on the edge
Of something much too deep
Funny how we feel so much
We can not say a word
We are screaming inside
But we can't be heard
I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
So afraid to love you
More afraid to lose
Clinging to a past
That doesn't let me choose
Once there was a darkness
Deepened in this night
He gave me everything he had
Oh, he gave me light
I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
I will remember you
Will you remember me
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories.

“BACKSTAGE”

It's easy to understand why the popular and talented drama advisor, Laura Armbruister, is posing as her own substitute teacher. The school administration wants to put an end to all this drama nonsense, but they can't close down the upcoming play until they find Ms. Armbruister to fire her. Meanwhile, fellow teacher and admirer, Steve Clarkson, is doing what he can to help Laura keep her job. But one of the students gets the wrong idea and thinks the two teachers are eloping at lunch time! Naturally, this rumor makes the rounds at lightning speed.

To add to the mix, an overbearing stage mother threatens to take over the production with her son, a minor character, taking over the lead. The students come up with their own plan to save the show, which includes having a boy in the cast dress up as a woman and pretend to be their teacher.

Unfortunately, he's trying to impress Annie, His romantic lead in the play, and it's hard to do with a dress and hairy legs. Other crazy characters include Wayne and Francis, the bumbling stage hands; Sam, the aspiring young playwright; Kara, the girl with an attitude; two journalism students who can't get a story straight; several students who scare themselves silly playing spooky games backstage, and of course, the school administrators and board members. In the end, the arts-- and true love triumph.

Amanda Cutler (Susie) covers for Jackie Trupp (Heidi) by letting Jackie use her arms while talking to Jeremy Roberts (Jeff), because hers happen to be in handcuffs.

Sophomores Take Third!

The theme for the 1996 Homecoming Parade was board games. The sophomore class chose the board game Jumangi with the slogan, "Send the Panthers Back to the Jungle!" The float placed third for the second year in a row. Float building took place at Jim Davis' house. A good number of class members participated in float building to make the whole experience memorable.

Princess Nicole

Nicole Landshoot was Homecoming princess for the class of 1999. Nicole is the daughter of Mr. Tom and Janet Landshoot. She enjoys volleyball, basketball, playing in the band, rollerblading, and being with friends. When asked about how she felt being selected as her class representative she stated, "I was very honored to be chosen by my classmates."

Nicole plans on attending a university to become an obstetrician.

Prince Bryan

Bryan McShane was chosen as homecoming prince for the sophomore class. Bryan is the son of Mr. Mike and Kathy McShane. He enjoys all sports, waterskiing, and hunting. In reaction to being elected on Homecoming court, Bryan said, "I am very honored to represent my class."

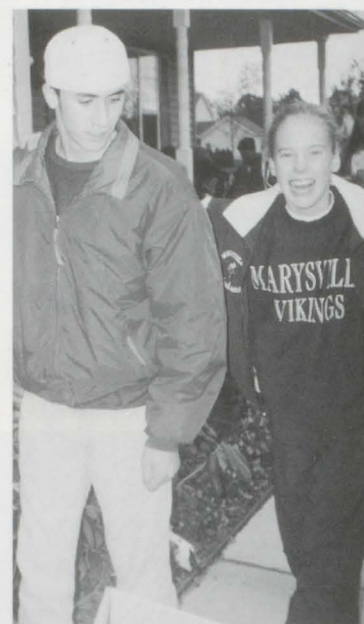

Bryan's favorite class is French. He plans on attending a four year college after high school.

Freshmen Float

The theme of the 1996 Homecoming was "board games." The freshmen class chose Shark Attack with a large shark as the centerpiece of their float.

The freshmen float was built at Kasey Knuth's house, and many freshmen showed class-pride by giving forth tons of effort!

For a very first attempt at float building, the freshmen did a great job! With the slogan, "Play like sharks, attack 'em!", they came in second place!

Princess Jackie

Jackie Partridge was chosen to represent the class of 2000 this year during Homecoming. She is the daughter of James and Linda Partridge.

Jackie is the Vice-President of her class and plans to attend college, but as to what career, she is still undecided.

When told she was elected to court, she said that she was really flattered to be chosen to represent her freshmen class and, "It's like a dream come true!"

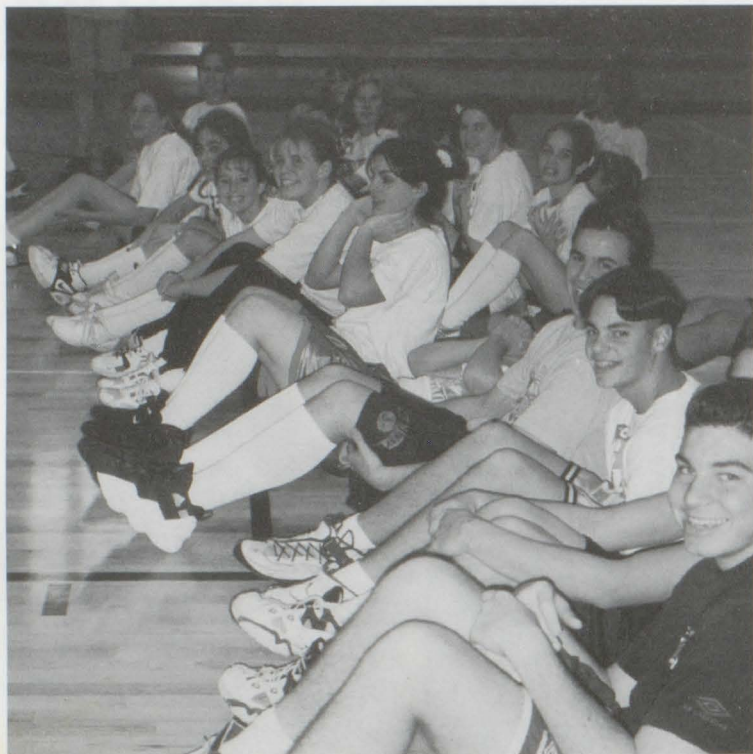

Prince Kevin

The freshmen class elected Kevin Moran to represent them in the 1996 Homecoming festivities this year. Kevin is the son of Larry and Debbie Moran.

Kevin also plans to attend college and he likes football and gym class. His reaction to being selected to court was, "Surprised!"

The freshman gym class happily flattens their tummies by doing sit-ups.

STUDENT LIFE

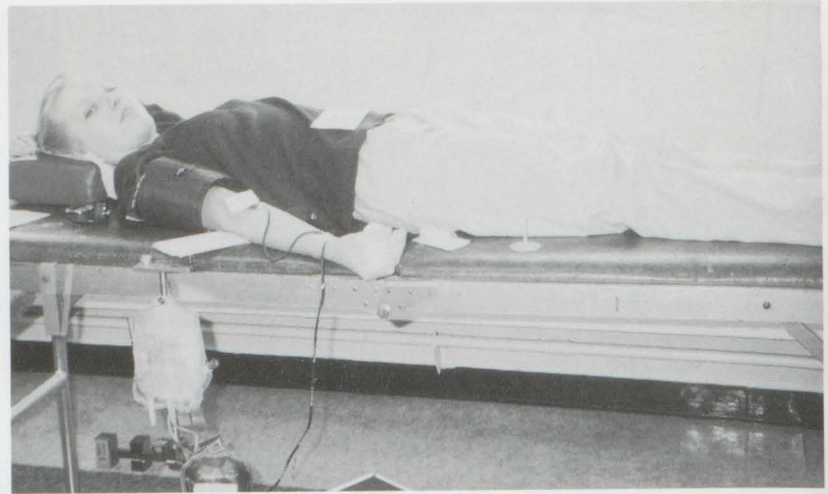

The 96-97 Student Council has been very active this year keeping the school spirit alive during Homecoming with Spirit Links and many other activities tying into the theme "boardgames". To get spirits up during the cold Winter, they did a "Winterfest". President Sarah Maxwell said that "the officers this year worked well together that's why they got so much done." They also did Holiday babysitting at the Elementary schools so the parents could go Christmas shopping. They had a canned food drive, sold candy at Hollaween and they helped the Red Cross with the Blood Drive. The money they earned this year went to buying laminators and a copy machine for Mrs. Lindke. N.H.S. Makes Community Rounds!

The 96-97 National Honor Society had an active year. They had a Halloween Stroll in Sanborn Park where they set up stands and passed candy out to the trick-or-treaters, during the day. They were a big help with the Woodlands Special Olympics, they sold carnations during spirit week, they made Christmas boxes with canned food and surprises in them for the elderly people, baked cookies for Marwood Manor, and had a coat drive. The list doesn't end with their community service. For their peers, they assisted in preparations for parent-teacher conferences, volunteered to tutor those who needed the help for the HSPT, and they made the "goodie bags" for the juniors upon completing the two weeks of testing. Their services were appreciated by all!

Steering Committees do exactly what their name implies. They steer the student body in the right direction to be successful and to enjoy their high school years. Any student interested may join but they must remain grade eligible as they are also role models for their peers.

The committees work on many projects during the year and their effort is well-rewarded when they see their accomplishments.

Computer Club Races "On Line"

The Marysville computer club was started three years ago by a small group of students. They worked around the clock to get this club going. They traveled to some of the other schools to get an idea as to how it should be run. Finally they wrote the constitution and had it approved by the school board.

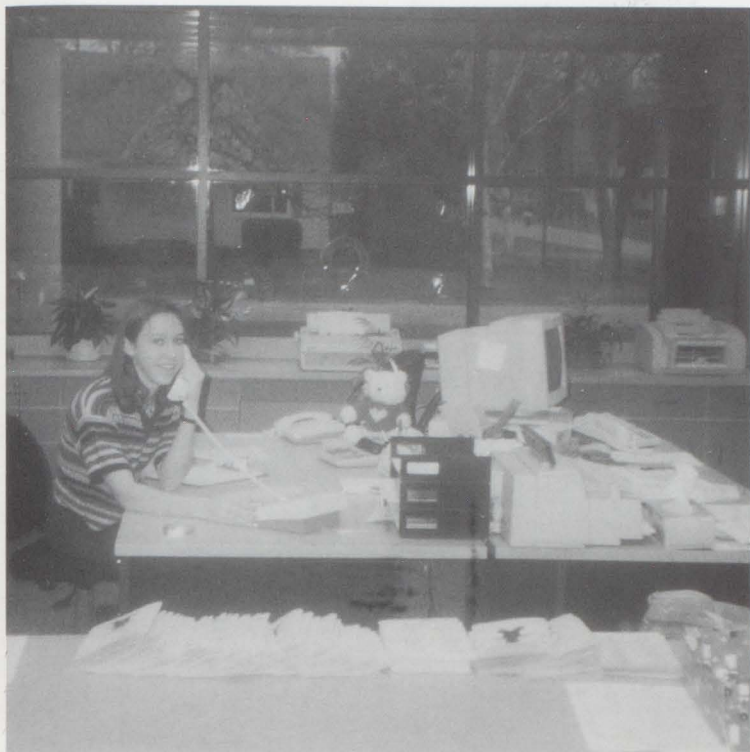

There were only about 10 members last year. As a club, they did some fund-raising, and with that money, they helped to pay for the advanced Placement Computer Science and Calculus tests. Today, the club is larger than ever with about 30 members!

The computer club is here to help students learn more about computing, and to see what types of computers are used out in the work field.

Cooperative education is a traditional work-based learning activity. It's designed to give juniors and seniors practical work experience. Many of the students have found co-op to be a key to their futures. Education assignments must have indicated an interest in the selected career field by taking classes associated with the placement. Each student involved in the program has the opportunity to investigate, in depth, a future career choice while receiving graduation credits and a fair wage.

Rebecca Struble, Shelly Stager, Lizz Jennings, and Candice Bailey are searching hard in their heads to find the answer to a question they were asked.

Curtis Trudeau, Holli Hopkins, Kurt Jaworski, and Jack Wetter are preparing to buzz in upon hearing the next question.

This year's Quiz Bowl was very exciting for all who were involved. The 1997 Quiz Bowl was coached by Mr. George and assistant coach was Mr. May. Their practices were held at our library and meets were all over the county. Quiz Bowl is like Jeopardy, who ever buzzes in first with the correct answer gets ten points. This year's Quiz Bowl team includes: Candice Bailey, Debbie Bock, Natalie Card, Molly DesJardins, Pierre Gignac, Chris Glaze, Holli Hopkins, Stephen Huczek, Kevin Jaworski, Kurt Jaworski, Lizz Jennings, Theresa Meinhardt, Mike Path, Joe Radatz, Jeremy Roberts, Kim Sparks, Shelly Stager, Rececca Struble, Julie Thornten, Curis Trudeau, Jack Wetter, Coach Mr. George, and Assistant Coach Mr. May.

Best friends are special gifts.
 When you find one your spirit lifts.
 They make you happy when you're sad.
 They make you smile when you're feeling bad.
 Through all your troubles they're there for you.
 They cheer you up when you're blue.
 When your feelings are turned around,
 They lift your shoulders up off the ground.
 Your friends are there for you to hold.
 When you're feeling angry, bad or cold.

SUMMER VACATION

June lets Summer softly in
With warm and sunny skies,
While hotter days beg for release
To which July replies.
And as the season slowly heats
With blazing, searing passion,
The days grow long and lazy, too,
In Summer's special fashion.
And at its peak the world seems to
Relax for just a while,
To bathe itself in Nature' glow
And Summer's sultry smile.

We've Travelled a Long Way to Become a Team

The boys' varsity soccer team was added to our busy fall schedule. The players and fans were very excited about the addition. Mr. George, the soccer coach, had a few words to say about the season, "Soccer added a new dimension to the fall sport schedule. For me, this meant that I could work with students who want to be part of the challenge of building a new program from the ground up. We, as a team, had a competitive schedule which included games against ranked teams like South Lake, Lakeview and Lapeer. The skill levels of these MAC teams caused us to work hard for every opportunity on goal. Our shining moment came against Marine City, 4-3. During the entire season, key players like Dan Coppens (Forward), Ryan Brown (Mid Field), Nick Clyne (MidField), Tom Peer (Defense), Steve Parker (Defense), Matt Cieciek (Goalie) helped us build a nucleus for an experienced team next year." We are very proud of our coaches and our team on how much time and effort you all put into the season.

The new look of the Varsity team consisted of various things. Not only did they get new uniforms, but they also introduced a new coach, Mr. Tom Valko, to the winning ways of the Viking pride. A new attitude and the novel strategies helped to bring a fine finish to the 96/97 season. The new look also spread to the fans as they cheered even harder to help the team advance to the districts and regional playoffs.

The 1997 Wrestling Team dedicated their season to wrestler Joey Condo.

Their motto “Back me up, Joey” was their inspiration to move on in his memory. They wore this motto proudly displayed on the sleeve of their shirt for each meet.

In fond remembrance, the student body and family gathered in front of the school to plant a tree so that he will still be with us.

Joey will be greatly missed by his family, friends and fellow wrestlers.

As friends and family look on, Andrew Somers and Jason Smith plant a tree in Joey's memory.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Class "B" State Champs!

The lady Vikings had another relentless season in '97. Among their wins they also were featured by Channel 4 (WDIV) news for their record of 100 consecutive winning games. Twelve members made the team strong as they climbed to the top of the MAC league. Also, they finished in first place in their Marysville Invitational. Top honors were given to the team including captain Jennie Williams who earned a four-year scholarship to Purdue. The team is proud of the way they stick together to finish well in "the race". They all knew that as individuals, they were good; but as a team, they were great!

Vikings Skate On For A Victory!

This year's Viking Hockey team was under the direction of a new coach, Ange Guzzo. They had a couple returning lettermen and had a lot of beginning hockey players. Despite the youth of the team, they had an excellent season as they advanced to the finals in Flint. With the fans on a roadtrip to cheer them on, they were disheartened by a loss.

Swim Team Races For The Laps!!

Marysville Viking Swim team had a new coach this year. He was a diver for St.Clair when he was in high school. Now, because of the relationship between the Marysville coach and the St.Clair coach, both teams have developed a comradery. The Viking Swim team consists of Front row: Mike Meinhardt, Pete Latham, Trainer Kelly Marriott, James Vandenebee, Tim Siemen, Matt Spana. Back row: Rob Doan, Joe Law, Dave Buckland, Danny Wilkerson, Kenny Sygit, Dave Doan, and Coach Trace Vincent.

With having the SCAL Championship and going to districts, the varsity team had a good season winning 14 out of 27 games. "Our 14-13 season was far more successful than it looked. We won the SCAL championship, we peaked at the right time to win the district, and came two runs from winning the regionals. A very good team of men to work with," stated Coach Houck.

HELPING US ALONG THE WAY !!

Viking fans cram together on the stands to show Viking spirit

Mrs. Marie Knuth the 1996 Homecoming Grand Marshall was a loyal Viking fan for a number of years. She began cheering for the Vikings as a student through her own school years at M.H.S. and graduated in 1939. Never leaving Marysville, she continued to follow the Vikings throughout all three of her children's participation in sports. She has also followed her son John (Mr. Knuth) as he coached three teams at Marysville for the past 24 years of his career. She still actively supports Viking athletics but has a special interest when her grandchildren are participating.

The staff at M.H.S. is one of the best in the state of Michigan. No matter what is happening in and around the school, you can believe that teachers are involved. From coaching, to advising, to volunteering for chaperoning an event, our staff was willing to lend a hand. Sometimes we don't give them enough credit. We know their job is to educate us but Mr. Smith remarked that, “The fun part of working in the building is working with young people. Most have a lot of energy and great ideas. They keep me energized and challenge me to stay up to date.” That's co-operative learning!

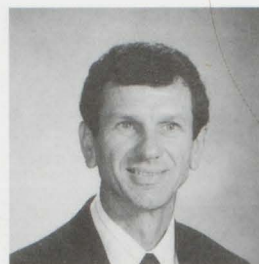

Baldy Kelch began working for Marysville Public Schools in 1971. He has been an important person in our lives for over 25 years. In 1992-93 he was voted Employee of the Year by his co-workers in the district. We will surely miss him upon his retirement in March 1997.

When it comes to running an efficient building, we had to count on the ladies who were always there to keep things running smoothly. It was amazing how they could do five jobs at the same time--answering phones, waiting on students, getting things for the teachers, and all the endless paperwork involved. As students, we learned that organization is a beneficial tool for success and these ladies were a quality role model in helping us achieve that aspect.

As well as support in the offices, we were also very fortunate to have Coach Walt Braun and Officer Mark Thornton available for helping us with our questions and problems. These gentlemen, too, were a great value to our success in becoming future leaders of our community.

Coach Braun is surrounded by his Honors T.A. students who help him run a secure ship.

Gerry Vanderhorst enjoys helping Mrs. Lindke in the Student Services office, as much as she enjoys having the help to get thorough her busy, daily routine.

Left: Officer Thornton has daily office hours for students to consult with him about tickets or other young adult problems.

Right: Mrs. Schmorow finds it hard to escape from her desk for even a few moments without someone looking for her help.

Those Who Make Our Travels Easier!

Left: Those we don't see who make our school a comfortable place are custodians Bob Harkelroad, Jan Zimmer, Judy Moretz, and Cindy Little.

Below: The many familiar faces around our school include Mrs. Kim Madis who subs daily within the building.

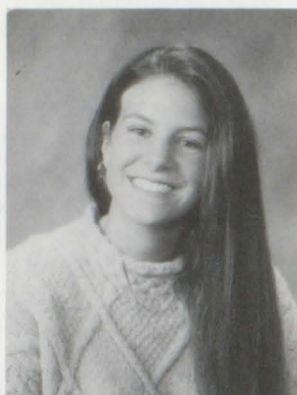

Left: Gathering together are the many faces who make it safe for students to arrive to school. Whether it be the busdrivers, the mechanics, or the administration who has the authority to call off school on account of snow or fog; these people make it possible for Marysville students to arrive on time.

Left: Our cooks are top notch! They feed us nutritionally during the day, and they are available for after-school events with coffee, snacks, and cookies!

E.T.A. --- MAY E.T.A. --- MAY

Yearbook is a challenging experience! Not only do we have to work, but we must use all the skills we've acquired in our classes throughout our high school career. Writing is of major importance. It is necessary to make sure the facts are in place; as well as public relations skills which are used in marketing the yearbook, soliciting ad sponsors, and shooting photos of the student body. To create an excellent book a staff that works well together is vital. The 1997 Viking Yearbook Staff wants to thank the students and staff for all your cooperation in making this year's Viking a success. The estimated time of arrival (E.T.A.) was May, and we've arrived!

Mrs. Lozen

Above: Lisa Bradford, Renee Eagen, Sarah Collins, and Sara Barbe help to make the marketing decision of which cover to choose for the yearbook.

Below: "You want it when?" asks Eve Faley upon hearing the date of her deadline.

Jackie Trupp works steadily cropping pictures to her layout to make the deadline.

"My design fits perfectly!" exclaims Stacey Goodmen as she finishes drawing in the last picture box.

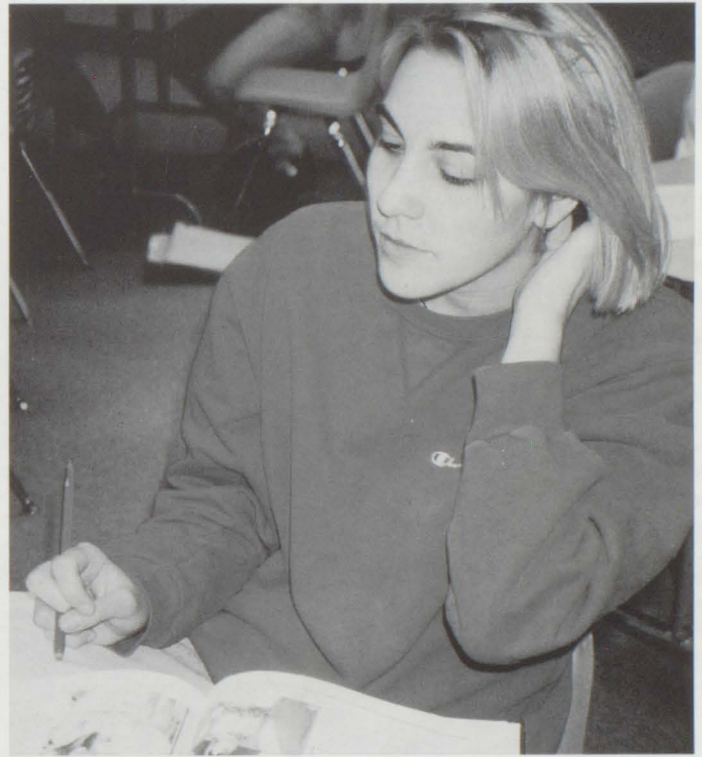

A special thanks goes to Mr. Jim Puskarich for donating his time to take pictures for the yearbook.

Above: Members of the staff are ecstatic about leaving school early to sell ads to the community businesses.

Below: Jason Malone and Jason Glaza work together to accomplish their goals.

Above: Carrie Bugg critiques other yearbooks for ideas to enhance the Viking.

Below: Shaun Laurain is surprised at how easy the job can be when effort is put to good use.
